REPORT OF THEFT OF SERVICE
(FAILURE TO RETURN PROPERTY HELD UNDER RENTAL AGREEMENT)

I (name) _____, an employee of (rental agency) _____, wish to report a theft of personal property, to wit: a motor vehicle, with the Dallas Police Department, I swear that the information provided in this report is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I am fully authorized by said rental agency to make this report. The vehicle identified below was last rented on (Date) _____. As of the date of the making of this report, the last known rental customer (actor) has either: 1) failed to return the property held under a rental agreement within 10 days after receiving notice demanding return, or 2) return property held under rental agreement after the expiration of the rental agreement and has failed to pay the applicable rental charge for the property within 10 days after date on which the actor received notice demanding payment. Notice demanding payment or return of the vehicle was sent to the actor on (date) _____ by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested or by telegram with report of delivery requested, and was addressed to the actor at the address as shown on the rental agreement as:

(address on rental agreement)

A diligent search of our records indicate that the vehicle cannot be found. We have thoroughly checked our fleet and determined that the vehicle has not been misplaced. We understand that the sole purpose of making this report is for instituting a criminal prosecution.
